

Name: Jesse Chen 陳勁初
Year Graduated: 1979, 航空系
Alumni Chapter Region: 北加州地區

Mr. Chen is Managing Director of Maton Venture. Maton is a Silicon Valley venture capitalist having strategic investors from US, Europe, Japan & Taiwan. Maton starts in 1997 & has invested in 33 companies across Semiconductor, Software and other Information Technology industries. As of today, Maton has 5 IPO & 5 M&A. Mr. Chen is also serving as Lead Director of AXTI, a public company on NASDAQ

Jesse Chen co-founded BusLogic, Inc. in 1988 and served as President and CEO from its inception. BusLogic designed and manufactured Bus Interface ASICs, SCSI adapters & disk array software and was a success from the beginning. Under Mr. Chen's leadership, the company grew from its original two founding members to a 140-employee company, with over twenty-two consecutive profitable quarters before it was acquired in February 1996. BusLogic's investors gained over sixty times the return on their investments within six years.

Jesse Chen has served as Chairman of the Monte Jade Science and Technology Association (Chinese High Tech Executives Club) since 1998 and served as Chairman of its Silicon Valley Chapter in 1997. Monte Jade has more than 1,000 high tech corporate members through out US, Canada & Asia with more than 50 of them public companies.